UMAPINE GRANGE HAS CELEBRATION

CELEBRATES TENTH ANNIVERSARY WITH PROGRAM AND CANDY PULL.

A. P. Hutton Pleases Large Audience at Presbyterian Church With Talk On Brewers' Amendment.

(East Oregonian Special)

UMAPINE, Ore., Oct. 13.—Friday evening the Hudson Bay Grange No. 361 of Umapine celebrated its tenth anniversary with a program and candy pull. About 35 members were present and enjoyed the evening. Resolutions were passed against the brewers' amendment and the full rental land amendment. A piano solo by Elyn Wilfley and a vocal solo by Deahly Bean were enjoyed by the audience.

Daily Day was celebrated in the Umapine Presbyterian church with a large crowd out to church. The audience was delighted with the talk made by A. P. Hutton, president of the Anti-Saloon League, on the brewers' amendment. In the evening Lola Records led the young people's meeting. Wednesday afternoon the Presbyterian Ladies Aid held an all day meeting with Mrs. H. A. Noyes and finished much work which is being prepared for their bazaar and dinner, which will be held election day, November 7.

October 6 a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Kyle McDaniels of this place. Mr. McDaniels is principal of the Pleasant View school and was formerly principal of schools at Umatilla and Adams.

John Weddie is building a bungalow home near Pleasant View.

Rev. Noyes attended a meeting of the Presbytery at Pendleton on Tuesday.

Dan J. Kirk, a well known rancher and republican committeeman from this place has purchased a fine new Chalmers "Six" car.

M. O. Beauchamp is having his house painted.

H. A. Myers, a United States government man, of the cow testing department for the Pacific northwest with headquarters at Salt Lake City, was through the Hudson Bay today interesting dairy farmers in the continuation of the Walla Walla Valley Cow Testing Association for this next year. It is altogether probable that the requisite number of dairy cows will be signed up for.

R. E. Bean, W. P. Leach and J. Martin made a business trip to Touchet on Wednesday.

R. P. Hemper of the Hudson Bay country had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse this week.

Charlie Dixon and family have moved into the R. H. Wellman place. Mr. Dixon having been employed as ranch foreman on that ranch.

H. B. Bacon has moved into the Robert Wright place three miles west of Umapine.

The Umapine Presbyterian church has installed electric lights in the church and the Ladies' Aid is also laying a floor in the basement.

Mrs. Nannie Geer and baby, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wilfley have gone to Walla Walla to visit her sister, Mrs. E. T. Jones.

A delegation of Hudson Bay grangers expect to visit the Gardena Grange on Saturday evening where topics of local interest will be discussed and their cooperative method of selling hay and other farm products and purchasing coal will be investigated.

Umapine farmers are cutting their fourth crop of alfalfa hay at present. This crop, although pretty fair, is not as heavy as other years and not all the ranchers are bothering to harvest it, preferring rather to use the fields for pasture.

Roy Saunders of Dry Creek, Ia. in Canada this week on a business trip.

O. W. Carpenter filled his pit alle this week with a fine crop of corn, to be used this winter in feeding his dairy stock.

He is a poor sign painter who cannot make a name for himself.
